BALLENTYNE MAY RESIGN

Says Hawaiian Jockey Club Has Insulted Him.

Today will be the last work-out day at the race track and heats will be piled in fast and furious from sun up until noon. Several trainers have yet to ask their charges a stiff question and the chances are that this morning will develop some very fast work.

George McKenzie is expected to arrive on the Kinau today with quite a delegation of horsemen and turf-lovers from the large island.

The entries in the harness events are still kept from the public by the Hawaiian Jockey Club, notwithstanding the fact that they closed a week ago. This is quite in keeping with the notoriously grab-all policy of the club which would rather earn a few extra dollars by the sale of programs than inform the public, to whose patronage the club owes its very existence, of entries about which it has a perfect right to make cognizant.

Another matter which is stirring up horsemen considerably is the $25 purse offered for the six-furlong dash for Hawaiian bred horses. It is needless to say that the purse is ridiculously inadequate. There are two Hawaiian breeds which would be entered provided a decent purse were hung up, but which under existing conditions will not be seen under silk. The only entries for the race as things are at present will be Amario and Alta Stacy, the latter a daughter of Ballentyne's game old horse.

Bob Ballentyne expressed himself to a reporter on the subject yesterday as follows:

"The club tells me that the race was made to oblige me and in order that I might secure a cup on which my horse Amario already has a leg. That may all be, but I am a regular patron of the local turf and I consider the offer of a $25 purse, which I am supposed to be able to win, a downright insult. I shall run my horse, but after the race shall resign from the Jockey Club."

Here is an instance of what it costs to train, enter and run a horse for the race in question, worth $25 to the winner. George Thomas is paid $50 a month to train one of the entries, Alta Stacy. The owner has to pay an entrance fee and $25 to his jockey if successful, and if not, $10 or $15 for riding services. If his horse loses, Mr. Owner is at least $75 loser and in the event of a victory for his colors is considerably out of pocket anyway.

The colors of two popular owners will be greatly missed when the curtain rings up on the meeting on Wednesday. Tom Hollinger's green and old gold and W. H. Cornwell's silver, gray and maltese cross will be noticeably absent. The former's runners, Aggravation and Racery, are being turned out for a season, and the blacksmith's only representative will be Leahl, the handsome home-bred pacer. Colonel Cornwell is also resting on his laurels for a season but will, it is said, re-enter the great game with a formidable string next year.

Another absence will be Colonel Spalding, the "Master of Keala," whose purple and yellow has so often flashed to the fore in former years. W. Wolters is another owner who has nothing to enter this year.

To offset these losses which the local turf has temporarily sustained, come the entries of Seeley Shaw, D. H. Lewis, J. O'Rourke, V. Richardson, W. H. Smith, W. H. Norton, J. A. McLennan and many others.

Entries for the running races close tonight and while the quantity will be less the quality of the entries will be higher than ever before. The harness events have all filled uncommonly well and promise to be the best of recent years.

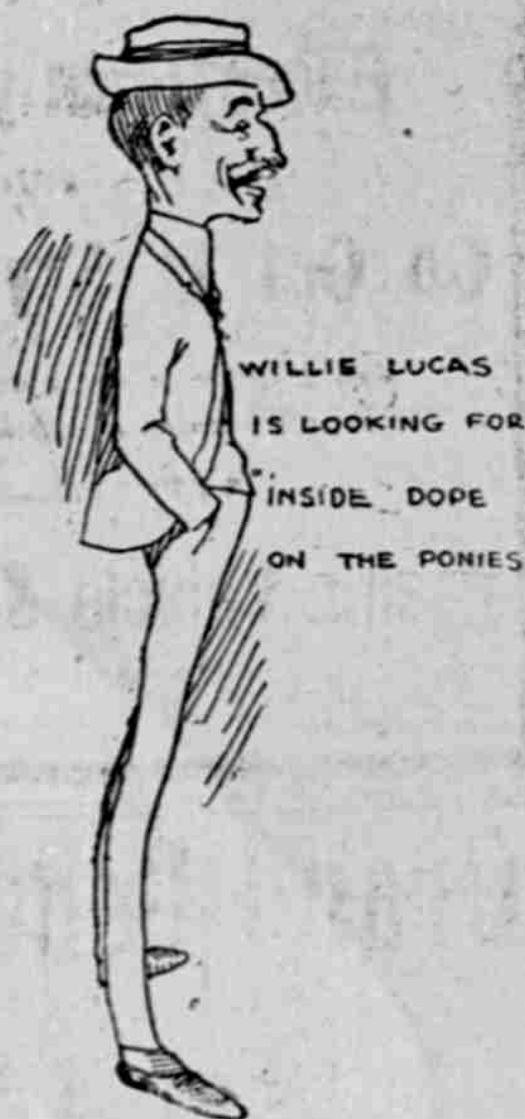

Edna G. is entered in the free-for-all and 2:24 class, but not in the gentlemen's driving race.

The following are the winners of the Rosita challenge cup in recent years:

1895—Amarino, 1:45 1/5.

1896—Lord Brock, 1:46 1/5.

POLICE WILL NOT PROTECT AGNEW

Jack Weday and Lon Agnew, the participants in the boxing contest to be decided in the opera house next Wednesday night, are both doing well in their training and have arrived at that stage where only the final touches remain to be put to the work of conditioning.

Seats for the contest are selling rapidly and indications point to a crowded house. Yesterday W. G. Irwin notified the Honolulu Athletic Club that, as has been the case from time immemorial, his private box in the theater must be reserved and no one allowed to use it. This came as somewhat of a surprise to the Honolulu Athletic Club, who when they hired the opera house thought that they had secured the entire accommodation of the theater.

The preliminary bouts have not yet been finally arranged, but the promoters of the exhibition have a number of good men in sight and some matches will probably be made today.

The police authorities state that the contest is one for points and will be strictly on its merits. They will only interfere if brutality be manifested. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth states that the fact that Agnew is a member of the police force will in no wise assure him of the protection of the department in the slightest degree.

HONOLULU AND MAILES TODAY

The league baseball games today will be between the Honolulu and Mailes and the Artillery and Kamehamehas. The games will be played in the order named, commencing at 1:30 o'clock, and the band will be present during the second part of the program.

The game between the Honolulu and Mailes is being looked forward to with much interest, for since the downfall of the unlucky Smugglers, the green and gold brigade have loomed up as the most dangerous opponents of the Honolulu in the race for the pennant. If they win today they will advance to the head of the league list.

The Artillery will take the field against the Kamehamehas, a reorganized nine, and if Brown be given adequate support should play a vastly improved game.

The standing of the league teams up to date is as follows:

	W.	L.	for agst.	perce.
Honolulu	3	0	42	5
Mailes	3	1	29	22
Punahou	3	1	17	19
Kamehamehas	1	2	12	13
Customs	1	3	25	32
Artillery	0	4	10	44

ATHLETIC SHOW BY GOODLY YOUTHS

The fourth annual gymnasium exhibition of the Young Men's Christian Association took place last night in the gymnasium of the institution, which was filled with a large and enthusiastic audience. The following program was successfully carried out:

Maze run—Evening Class and Juniors.
Bar bell drill—Juniors.
Hare and parallel bars—Evening Class.
Bag punching—A. E. Lutz.

High horizontal bar—Men's selected class.
Tree exercises and dumb bell drill—Evening Class.

Low horizontal bar and springboard jump—Intermediates and Juniors.
Gymnasium games—Juniors.
Hand and Indian wrestling—Intermediates.

Parallel bars—Men's selected class.
Elephant—Evening Class.

The apparatus work was executed to the accompaniment of piano music.

The evolutions of the young athletes were of an extremely finished nature and highly creditable to Physical Director Fred Young.

CRICKET MATCH FOR CORONATION

The coronation celebration sports committee met on Thursday evening and decided to have no regular program of athletic sports on June 26. The reason for this is that entries would probably be very poor on account of the majority of Honolulu's athletes being engaged in baseball and racing.

There will, however, be a cricket game, played probably on the Oahu College campus. Seats will be furnished free of charge, a marquee will be erected in which refreshments will be dispensed to all and sundry, and last but not least, the Territorial band will, it is hoped, be permitted to lend eclat to the occasion. Taken altogether, the coronation cricket match will be a thing to be remembered.

VERY ANNOYING

This Hardly Expresses What Honolulu People Say of It.

Good natured people are often irritable. If you knew the reason, you would not be surprised.

Ever have itching piles?

Not sick enough to go to bed; not well enough to be content.

The constant itching sensation.

Hard to bear; harder to get relief.

Spoils your temper, nearly drives you crazy.

Isn't relief and cure a long-felt want?

You can have relief if you will follow the advice of this gentleman.

Mr. Frank Leiby of 326 S. Main st., Wilkesbarre, Pa., U. S., who says: "It is with much pleasure that I testify to the merits of Doan's Ointment in cases of itching piles. I suffered from that tormenting affliction for the past year."

WHY CHANGE THE VENUE?

Pros and Cons of the Local Rowing Dispute.

The southerly weather with which Honolulu has been afflicted during the past five or six days has given rowing a set back, as the harbor has been too rough for shell practice to amount to anything. Tuesday there was not a crew on the water, and since then the oarsmen who did venture out appeared to spend most of their time in trying to keep the boat right side up, for "form" was conspicuous by its absence.

Those who have been endeavoring to have the shell races rowed on the harbor on the Fourth of July should go down there evenings and become convinced of the impracticability of it. Ground swells roll across the course and slap up against the wharves, logs, sticks, old crates, "dead soldiers" and various other kinds of impediments float around in delightful confusion, any one of which would ruin a shell if struck at racing speed. Add to this the fact that it is very difficult to get a half mile straight-away course, let alone a mile and a half, which is short enough as it is. Would that there were a four mile course here, for the mile and a half sprint is very hard on men trained in the Tropics.

There may be some who would scoff at the idea that it is easier to row a four-mile race than a mile and a half race, but such is the fact. A quarter of a mile run is the hardest race for track athletes, and in the same way the mile and a half race is the hardest race on the water. It is the longest distance that human beings can race at top speed and is a spurt from start to finish.

Those who witness the boat races on the Fourth, which races will certainly be worth seeing, can take their share in the usual early, noisy welcoming of the nation's birthday, can go to the harbor and see some races that from present indications will be the best that have been rowed here, and finally can get back to Honolulu in time for luncheon, or tiffin, as the case may be, and see everything that is to be seen during the afternoon and evening of the festival day.

The benefit for the Healan Yacht and Boat Club, which is under the management of Allan Dunn, will probably take place at the Opera House on the night of Saturday, June 28, and promises to be a success. The Healanians worked so hard and did so much to make the Myrtle benefit of last year go off with such eclat, that the wearers of the Red are going to outdo them if possible, and show that they are as liberal and friendly as their worthy rivals.

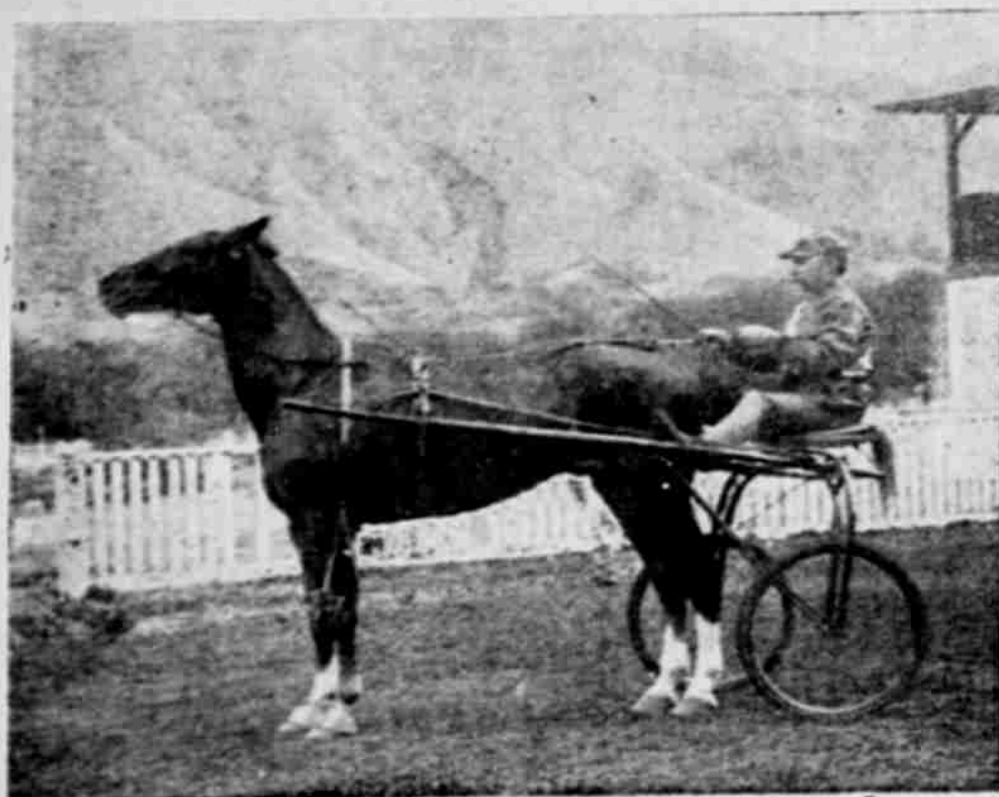

In this connection the public also should give all the aid in their power, for they will gain more than their money's worth from the entertainment offered, and can not possibly help on a more worthy object than the boat clubs that give so much good sport and clean sport.

I tried nearly everything that was recommended to me and what I saw advertised, but I could get no relief. Finally I procured Doan's Ointment. After a few applications I was much relieved, and, continuing the treatment, I was soon completely cured. I have felt no signs of that intolerable itching since, and it is four months ago since I used Doan's Ointment. To say that I was delighted is only half expressing my enthusiasm. I recommend this remedy whenever the opportunity is presented. You may publish my statement at any time and I can always be found at 326 S. Main street, and will vouch for the same."
